

SEASON 2, EPISODE 2050: A MUSICAL FOREVER HOME

Holly and Cory moved into their Las Vegas ranch style home over ten years when their four kids were very young. When they first bought the house, they thought that it was perfect. There was plenty of space to raise the kids, host large family gatherings and have room to play and store their numerous music instruments. But, as the four kids are becoming teenagers, Holly and Cory realize that their family's needs are changing and the house needs to change with them. The music room is closed off and cluttered, the kitchen's layout makes it feel tight and cramped and the main living area feels disjointed. Drew and Jonathan step in to give their home a tune up and transform the kitchen, dining room, family room and music room giving Holly and Cory a home they can sing about for years to come.
