EPISODE 209: STAY WHERE YOU'RE TO

The heritage of this Newfoundland biscuit box home in Petty Harbour is saved. The original features, when it was built over a hundred years ago, is perfectly mixed with modern updates.

1. Paint: Vermillion - Benjamin Moore
2. Windows and Doors - Koltech

3. Deck, Wardrobe, Boot Rack - Newfound Builders
4. Rug - Turkey Rug Art

5. Custom House Sign - Newfound Builders

EPISODE 209: STAY WHERE YOU'RE TO

The living room is part of the new addition. The original exterior wall is exposed and kept as a feature from builders over a 100 yrs ago.

1. Floating Shelves - Newfound Builders
2. Doors - Legacy Vintage
3. Wood Stove - Newfound Builders Napoleon dealer
4. Concrete Floors - Concrete Plus Inc
5. Quilt - Wooly Tops
6. Rug - Turkish Rug Kingdom
7. Lamp - Sam Design
8. Paint: Tranquil Blue - Benjamin Moore

EPISODE 209: STAY WHERE YOU'RE TO

The footprint of the original house was transformed into a large kitchen and dining area. Concrete floors, steel beams and counters, mixed with the original ceiling and staircase, make this industrial cottage design truly one of a kind.

1. Kitchen Cabinetry - Hawthorn Industries
2. Sink Skirt - Blinds & Drapes Etc.

3. Counters & Hardware - The Newfoundland Blacksmith

4. Wall Cabinet, Bar Table & Shelves - Newfound Builders

EPISODE 209: STAY WHERE YOU'RE TO

On the second floor a reading nook and home office is created to enjoy views of the harbour. The upstairs bathroom is part of the new addition, and the original exterior wall became a feature.

1. Tile - Creative Brick & Tile
2. Paint: Eve Green - Benjamin Moore
3. Original exterior boards, ceiling beams, floor boards - clear coated. Original beadboard repurposed as trim and painted: Eve Green - Benjamin Moore
4. Window Seat Cushion - The Upholstery Centre
5. Cushion Fabric - Tonic Living
6. Tracks for Shelves - Knape and Voght